Record Supplement for December, 1947

No. 12

SEASON'S GREETINGS

THE GRAMOPHONE SHOP extends to its customers and subscribers the Season's Greetings, and takes this opportunity to express its heartfelt appreciation for their valued patronage.

SPECIAL NOTE: This issue contains our annual list of Recordings of Permanent Value, based on records listed as still available in the latest catalogues. Under present conditions, it is impossible for us to have all recordings in stock — and to have both manual and automatic couplings in all cases. We ask your forbearance and co-operation. Mail orders should always list second and third choices.

Order early — at once — as present conditions make it unlikely that late orders can be shipped for arrival before Christmas.

BACH (JOHANN SEBASTIAN)

BACH: Cantata No. 189 — Meine Seele, ruhm't und preist — Complete recording. Pierre Bernac (baritone in German) & Chamber Orchestra conducted by Charles Münch. Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. G-DB5193/4; price $5.24.

The sections of this cantata are entitled: No. 1, Meine Seele, ruhm't und preist; No. 2, Donn, seh' ich mich (Recit.); No. 3, Gott hat sich hoch gesetzt (Aria); No. 4, O was vor grosse Dinge (Recit.); No. 5, Deine Güte, dein Erbarmen.

Pierre Bernac, the French baritone who has specialized in the modern French school of Chansons, turns his attention to this wonderful cantata of Bach. He is supported by a chamber orchestra conducted by Charles Münch. In the Anthologie Sonore series (AS-23) there is an abbreviated version of this cantata. However, the present version is superior in most ways. The recording is superb and the performance is most excellent. M. Bernac's German diction is clean and musically. Although it is scored for a tenor, the cantata is sung with ease by the French baritone.

BACH: Concerto No. 4 in A major for Clavier & Orchestra (3 sides) & English Suite No. 1 in A major — Sarabande & Bourrées I & II (arr. Pf. & Orch.) (1 side). Marguérite Roesgen-Champion (piano) & Orchestra of the Concerts Marius-François Gaillard. Two 12" imported records, Nos. G-DB5150/1; price $5.24.

The pianist Marguérite Roesgen-Champion gives a reading notable for its strength and style which has also been effectively recorded. The only available version of this concerto is Edwin Fischer's performance (G-DB380/1, out of stock). The present version will stand favorable comparison with that excellent reading.

On the last side there is an arrangement of part of Bach's English Suite No. 1, none of which has been previously recorded. Although arranged for piano and orchestra, it may be recommended for those who wish to have their Bach in any form whatsoever. The recording is most satisfactory.

BACH: English Suite No. 3 in G minor, Isabelle Nef (harpsichord). Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. OL-122/3; price $4.40.

Bach's English Suites date from his Cöthen period with most of his other keyboard compositions of the same type. The movements of the present Suite are marked: Prelude, Allemande, Courante, Sarabande, Gavottes I & II, Gigue. The present recording is the only complete version played on the harpsichord. A recent reissue of an early Polydor recording by Alexander Borowsky (on VOX-170) is played on the piano and the performance is none too satisfactory. Isabelle Nef presents a well-integrated reading which has been most effectively recorded by l'Oiseau Lyre. It might be added that the French company has in its catalogue an arrangement of the last two movements for clarinet, oboe and bassoon played by the Trio d'Anches de Paris (OL-120, price $1.75). The Sarabande is familiar through the Stokowski orchestral transcription.

BARTOK (BELA)

BARTOK: Sonata No. 2 for Violin & Piano (5 sides) & Romanian Dances (arr. Szekely) (1 side). Tossy Spivakowsky (violin) & Artur Balsam (piano). Three 12" records in Set CONCERT HALL-AA; price complete with album $7.20. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Bela Bartok's Second Violin Sonata was composed in 1920. This period is characterized by an almost complete absence of tonal chords and harmonies. The two movements are marked Molto moderato & Allegretto. On the final side Mr. Spivakowsky plays Zoltan Szekely's arrangement of four of Bartok's Romanian Dances, originally composed in 1908 for piano.

The present recording, sponsored by the League of Composers, is of excellent quality. The balance between the violin and the piano is good and the result is an important addition to the lists. It is to be hoped that Mr. Spivakowsky will continue to give us more important works from the contemporary repertory.

BEETHOVEN (LUDWIG VAN)

BEETHOVEN: Quartet No. 7 in F major, Op. 59, No. 1 (Rasoumovsky No. 1) (9 sides) & MOZART: Quartet No. 17 in B flat major, K. 458 ("Hunting") — Menuetto only (1 side). Paganini String Quartet. Five 12" records in Set VM-1151; price complete with album $7.40. (Automatic coupling: VDM-1151; price $6.30).

BEETHOVEN: Quartet No. 8 in E minor, Op. 59, No. 2 (Rasoumovsky No. 2). Paganini String Quartet. Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set VM-1152; price complete with album $6.30. (Automatic coupling: VDM-1152; price $5.25).

BEETHOVEN: Quartet No. 9 in C major, Op. 59, No. 3 (Rasoumovsky No. 3) (7 sides) & MOZART: Quartet No. 23 in D major, K. 575 ("Solo") — Menuetto only (1 side). Paganini String Quartet. Four 12" records in Set VM-1153; price complete with album $6.30. (Automatic sequence: VDM-1153; price $5.25).

For their recording debut, the Paganini String Quartet has chosen three Beethoven Quartets. This has been a wise choice, for all performances are completely praiseworthy. The recordings are of uniform excellence. These happen to be the first quartet recordings Victor has released in several years. It is to be hoped that this group will record more and that other releases will soon follow. There are other recordings of these works but at the present time these performance are probably the best obtainable, with the exception of the excellent imported recording of the Quartet No. 7 by the Philharmonia Quartet on English Columbia (C-DX1067/71); $13.10). The members of the quartet are Henri Temianka and Gustave Rosseels (violins), Robert Courte (viola) and Robert Maas ('cello). The Paganini Quartet was formed in 1946 and was heard in concert for the first time in California that year. They have since won critical acclaim, which they most certainly deserve.

BEETHOVEN: Leonore Overture No. 3, Op. 72a. Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Eugen Jochum. Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. U-F18021/2; $3.50. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Eugen Jochum's stirring performance of Beethoven's "Leonore Overture No. 3" was recorded in Germany prior to the war and was available at one time on the Telefunken label. Since records are not available from Germany, these Czech pressings are the next best thing. They are of excellent quality, and the recording is among the best available today.

BEETHOVEN: Sonata No. 23 in F minor, Op. 57 ("Appassionata"). Rudolf Serkin (piano). Three 12" records (6 sides) in Set CMM-711; price complete with album $4.60. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Mr. Serkin's early recording of this sonata on the Victor label (now discontinued) was never completely satisfactory. The present performance is one of strength and vigor. Altogether, this performance lives up to the best that Mr. Serkin has given us on records in the past. The recording is also excellent and the piano tone is very realistic.

BEETHOVEN: Sonata No. 3 in A major, Op. 69, for 'Cello and Piano. Pierre Fournier ('cello) & Artur Schnabel (piano). Three 12" imported records (6 sides), Nos. G-DB6464/6; price $7.86. (Also available in automatic sequence: G-DB9123/5).

For their first recording together, Pierre Fournier and Artur Schnabel have performed a 'Cello Sonata of Beethoven. These two musicians, who recently appeared at the Edinburgh Festival, are very well suited for ensemble work. Seldom has recording achieved the effects that are captured in the present performance. The musicianship and care which makes the present performance so outstanding should be an inspiration to all chamber music players. The recording is magnificent throughout.

BERG (ALBAN)

BERG: Wozzeck — Three Excerpts. Charlotte Boerner (soprano in German) & Janssen Symphony Orchestra of Los Angeles conducted by Werner Janssen. Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set ARTIST-JS12; price complete with album $5.25. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Alban Berg's opera "Wozzeck" was first produced in 1925. It is based on a play by George Büchner (famous for "Danton's Death") who died in 1835. The opera achieved world fame as being one of the first atonal pieces of stage music. The work was performed in the United States in 1931 with much acclaim and condemnation. The music has been seldom heard since until the present concert season. These recordings present three excerpts or "Bruchstücke" which were publicly heard a year before the opera itself was performed. They have been heard twice during the present New York concert season. The records include the brief interlude between scenes 1 and 2 of Act I and music from scene 3 of the same act. The second excerpt contains selections from scene 1 of Act. III. The final excerpt contains music from the concluding pages of Act III, scene 3. The notes give the German text as well as the translation.

Charlotte Boerner is an excellent choice for the difficult role of Marie and the conducting of Mr. Janssen is completely praiseworthy. The recording is excellent throughout. The best way to study this difficult music is through recordings and the present set gives music lovers that opportunity. It might be added that the vinylite pressings are of very fine quality.

BERLIOZ (HECTOR)

BERLIOZ: Roméo et Juliette, Op. 17 — Selections from Part II. NBC Symphony Orchestra conducted by Arturo Toscanini. Three 12" records (6 sides) in Set VM-1160; price complete with album $5.25. (Automatic sequence: VDM-1160; price $4.20) (Also available in unbreakable vinylite: Manual sequence: V-V7; $8.40; Automatic sequence: V-DV7; $7.35.)

The selections included in the present recording are: Roméo seul, Tristesse, Concert et Bal, Grand Fête chez Capulet; Scène d'amour.

There can only be praise for the present recording and performance, coupled, however, with a tinge of regret. If only the vocal sections and the remainder of the orchestral parts had been included as they were broadcast last year by Maestro Toscanini. The recording is technically excellent and the performance is one of those ideal combinations of temperament, musicianship and spirit. The "Scène d'Amour" is recorded for the first time.

BONNAL (ERMEND)

BONNAL: Trois Noël. Janine Micheau (soprano in French) with Chorus & Piano (3 sides) & Noël des Poemes Franciscains. H. B. Etcheverry & Janine Micheau (baritone & soprano) & Piano (1 side). Two 10" imported records, Nos. G-DA5004/5; $4.00.

Ermend Bonnal is a contemporary French composer who has set some poems of the 16th century to music. The titles are: Laissez paistre vos bestes; Noël nouvelet en rondeau; Cantique du Noël en tambourin. The labels do not make it clear whether the music is written by M. Bonnal or are settings of early music. From the sound, it would appear that they are settings of actual music, but they may actually be composed music. Also, the labels say that the singers are accompanied by an orchestra but a piano is used. Mlle. Micheau displays a lovely light voice which has been recorded to advantage. M. Etcheverry is also the possessor of a remarkably rich baritone voice.

CHOPIN (FREDERIC)

CHOPIN: Four Ballades (9 sides) & Valses No. 6 in D flat major, Op. 64, No. 1 & No. 11 in G flat major, Op. 70, No. 1 (1 side). Jean Doyen (piano). Five 12" imported records Nos. G-DB5145/9; $13.10. (Available in manual sequence only).

Jean Doyen shows himself to be a straightforward, sensitive pianist, capable of moving listeners by means of brilliant display. These four Ballades have been recorded many times but not all are available at the present time in isolated performances. The present set was recorded in France some time during the War. The reproduction is most lifelike.

Quantities are limited at the present time.

CORELLI (ARCANGELO)

CORELLI: Concerto Grosso No. 8 in G minor, Op. 6, No. 8 ("Christmas Concerto"), (arr. Schering). Collegium Musicum conducted by Hermann Diener. Two 10" imported records (4 sides), Nos. G-EG6502/3; price $2.90.

This concerto is part of a set of twelve Concerti Grossi, Op. 6, completed shortly before the composer's death in 1713. It was composed for a performance at Christmas, as a superscription on the score ("Fato per la notte di Natale") makes clear.

There is a brief Vivace, followed by a Grave and an Allegro. The remainder of the concerto consists of these divisions: Adagio — Allegro — Adagio; Vivace — Allegro; Pastorale: Largo.

The recording, by Hermann Diener and his Collegium Musicum, is a model performance of early music. The arrangement by Schering is most tasteful, with the harpsichord continuo.

DEBUSSY (CLAUDE)

DEBUSSY: Pelléas et Mélisande — Complete recording. Soloists, Yvonne Gouverné Chorus & Symphony Orchestra conducted by Roger Désormière. Twenty 12" imported records (40 sides), Nos. G-DB5161/80; $52.40 (Available in manual sequence only)

We have recently received a limited supply of the French recording of "Pelléas et Mélisande" recorded some time during the War. The cast is as follows:

Pelléas	Jacques Jensen (T)
Mélisande	Irène Joachim (S)
Geneviève	Germaine Cernay (Ms)
Golaud	H. B. Etcheverry (B)
Arkel	Paul Cabanel (Bs)
Ynold	Leila Ben Sadira (S)
Le Berger	Emile Rousseau (B)
Le Médecin	Nargon (Bs)

Since it was first performed at the Opéra-Comique on April 30, 1902, this work has been the center of many controversies. Some claim it to be one of the greatest works of the present century, a landmark in the history of opera. Others consider it a pale imitation of Wagner. However one may feel, it has had a profound influence on all operas written since that time. The link between the text and the music as well as the suggestive background of the orchestra contribute to the unity of the mood. The present performance is complete. Every note of the score is contained on these records. It is the custom of the Metropolitan and other lyric theatres to omit one or two scenes. However, they have been recorded in this performance. It might be said that three orchestral interludes from Acts II and III are included on the last record of the set. This was done in order to avoid overlapping scenes. All in all, the breaks between sides have been managed with great skill. There can be nothing but praise for the singing and the orchestral playing. The performance might have used a little more imagination on the part of the conductor, but the result is most enjoyable. Let it be said that this great score is available in complete form with first-rate soloists. Of these, Mr. Etcheverry, Mlle. Joachim and the late Germaine Cernay are the most outstanding.

DEBUSSY: Preludes — Book II. E. Robert Schmitz (piano). Six 10" records (12 sides) in Set VM-1138; price complete with album $5.78.

E. Robert Schmitz' rendition of the Second Book of Preludes by Debussy is played in much the same manner as his performance of the First Book, reviewed in the March, 1946 Supplement. His tone is clearly recorded and the performance is imaginative. A recent performance of this set of Preludes by Robert Casadesu was beautifully performed but the recording was inferior. The present set may be said to be the best available version today. The highly praised set by Walter Gieseking has been out of stock for some time.

The titles of the Preludes are as follows: Brouillards; Feuilles mortes; La puerta del vino; Les fées sont d'exquises danseuses; Bruyères; General Lavine — eccentric; La terrasse des audiences au clair de lune; Ondine; Hommage à S. Pickwick, Esq., P. P. M. P. C.; Canope; Les tierces alternées; Feux d'artifice.

DEBUSSY: Selections. Oscar Levant (piano). Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set CMM-710; price complete with album $5.85.

Contents: Reflets dans l'eau; La soirée dans Grenade; General Lavine — eccentric (Prelude No. 6, Book II); Minstrels & La Cathédrale engloutie (Preludes No. 12 & No. 10, Book I); Sérénade à la poupée & Le petit berger (from "Children's Corner Suite"); La plus que lente; Arabesques No. 1 in E major & No. 2 in G major.

Mr. Levant's numerous admirers will find this set well recorded. The pianist plays in his accustomed style.

FAURÉ (GABRIEL)

FAURÉ: Quartet No. 2 in G minor for Piano & Strings, Op. 45. Marguerite Long (piano), Jacques Thibaud (violin), Marcel Vieux (viola), Pierre Fournier ('cello). Four 12" imported records (8 sides), Nos. G-DB5103/6; $10.48. (Available in manual sequence only).

There have been many calls for this beautiful work to be recorded and we now have a limited supply of a French recording made by four outstanding soloists. All are familiar to record collectors with the possible exception of the violist. It is good to have M. Thibaud recording again, as it is also good to hear from Marguerite Long after too long a silence. There is no other recording of this work, which was composed in 1886.

The recording is lifelike and resonant, with a fine balance between the instruments.

GOLESTAN (STAN)

GOLESTAN: Petit Suite Bucolique en forme de trio pour Hautbois, Clarinette et Basson. Trio d'Anches de Paris (3 sides) & Chanson du Pays pour Basson, Fernand Oubradous (bassoon) & A. M. Ginisty-Brisson (piano) (1 side). Two 10" imported records, Nos. G-DA4919/20; price $4.00.

Although a Romanian by birth, Stan Golestan has been so influenced by his French teachers—who include Dukas, D'Indy, and Roussel, and by his long residence in Paris that he is more accurately described as a French modern with colorful Balkan overtones. The "Petit Suite Bucolique" certainly fits this description. It might be noted that one of the folk themes used by Enesco in his Romanian Rhapsody No. 1 is also used by M. Golestan in the "Chanson du Pays."

The personnel of the Trio d'Anches de Paris is as follows: Myrtil Morel (oboe), Pierre Lefebvre (clarinet), Fernand Oubradous (bassoon).

We have received a limited supply of these technically excellent records.

GRECHANINOV (ALEXANDER)

GRECHANINOV: Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, No. 2, Op. 29. Choir of the Russian Cathedral, Paris (unaccompanied) conducted by Nicolas Afonsky. Four 12" imported records (8 sides), Nos. G-DB5187/90; $10.48. (Available in manual sequence only)

The Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom No. 2 was first performed in Moscow on March 15, 1903. It is one of two Liturgies written by this composer, who also wrote many other works for unaccompanied chorus. A score has not been available for checking purposes, so there is no way of telling whether the work is complete or not. The sides are labelled as follows: Grande Litanie; Antienne; O fils unique; Les Béatitudes; Hymne des Cherubims; Hymne à la Sainte Vierge; Pater Noster; Psaume 54: Exauce, o mon Dieu, ma prière.

The recording, made in France is of excellent quality as were most of the prewar recordings by this organization. The present supply is severely limited.

HAHN (REYNALDO)

HAHN: Concerto Provençal for Flute, Clarinet, Bassoon, Horn & Strings. Chamber Orchestra conducted by Fernand Oubradous. Three 10" imported records (6 sides), Nos. G-DA4993/5; $6.00.

Reynaldo Hahn's music has considerable charm and elegance which is reflected in the present set of records from France. The chamber orchestra has been recorded with lifelike fidelity by the French engineers.

HAYDN (FRANZ JOSEF)

HAYDN: Sonata No. 49 in E flat major. Denis Matthews (piano). Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. C-DX1374/5; price $5.24. (Available in manual sequence only)

We have recently received a limited supply of a first recording of a sonata by Haydn played by Denis Matthews. There have been other recordings of Haydn Sonatas in E flat major, but the present masterpiece seems to have escaped the notice of the recording companies until now. The performance is notable for its elegance and stylistic grace as well as its strength. The recording is well up to the standards set by the British engineers.

The movements are marked: Allegro, Adagio cantabile & Tempo di Menuetto.

HAYDN: Symphony No. 94 in G major ("Surprise"). Boston Symphony Orchestra conducted by Serge Koussevitzky. Three 12" records (6 sides) in Set VM-1155; price complete with album $5.25. (Automatic sequence: VDM-1155; $4.20)

Serge Koussevitzky's standard version of the "Surprise" Symphony has been replaced by a new and super-brilliant performance which somewhat misses the wit and sparkle inherent in the music. The conductor's somewhat Beethovenesque approach distorts the meaning of the music. This is a pity because the orchestral sound is ravishing and the recording superb.

HINDEMITH (PAUL)

HINDEMITH: Conato for Viola d'amore & Piano, Op. 25, No. 3. Milton Thomas (viola d'amore) & Sara Compinsky (piano). Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set ALCO-AC204; price complete with album $4.83. (Available in automatic sequence only)

This work is one of four sonatas which make up Op. 25. The others are for solo viola, solo 'cello and viola and piano. The present work dates from 1929. The viola d'amore is an instrument no longer in general use today. It is a 14 stringed instrument somewhat larger than a violin. The strings are arranged in two sets of seven each. The total range is slightly greater than that of an ordinary viola. Only seven strings are played, the others not being touched by the player, but lie under the principal strings and vibrate in sympathy with the principal strings.

The artists in the present recording are well suited to their task and have received adequate attention from the recording engineers. The vinylite pressings are of good quality. As far as we can trace, this is a first recording.

KHACHATURIAN (ARAM)

KHACHATURIAN: Concerto for Violin & Orchestra. Louis Kaufman (violin) & Santa Monica Symphony Orchestra conducted by Jacques Rachmilovich. Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set CONCERT HALL-AN; price complete with album $9.45. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Aram Khachaturian's Violin Concerto was composed in 1940 and for it he won the Stalin Prize in 1941. (He had won it once before for his ballet "Gayenne"). The score was published in 1944 and dedicated to David Oistrakh, the Russian virtuoso whose recordings occasionally appear in this country. He recorded this work a few years ago and the set was released in England but has been discontinued. Now we have a new and brilliant rendition of the work by Louis Kaufman and the Santa Monica Symphony Orchestra. This is easily the best performance by this orchestra which has been recorded for Disc and Concert Hall in recent months. The vinylite pressings are of good quality.

LARSSON (LARS-ERIK)

LARSSON: Pastoral Suite, Op. 19 (3 sides) & A Winter Saga — Epilogue (1 side). Symphony Orchestra conducted by Lars-Erik Larsson. Two 12" imported records, Nos. G-Z312/3; price $4.00.

Lars-Erik Larsson is a Swedish composer, born in 1908, whose works consist of music for chamber orchestra, an opera, a symphony, a concerto for saxophone, numerous songs, etc. The present "Pastoral Suite" and "A Winter's Saga — Epilogue" are beautifully recorded by this Swedish orchestra. The music is in the Grieg tradition and makes very pleasant listening. The sections of the Suite are marked: Overture, Scherzo & Romance. Our present supply is limited.

MAC DOWELL (EDWARD)

MAC DOWELL: Piano selections. Rudolph Ganz (piano). Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set D-A 599; price complete with album $3.00.

Contents: To a Water Lily, Op. 51, No. 6; To a Wild Rose, Op. 51, No. 1 (both from "Woodland Sketches"); Scotch Poem, Op. 31, No. 2; Improvisation, Op. 46, No. 4; March Wind, Op. 46, No. 10; Rigaudon, Op. 49, No. 2; A. D. MDCXX (A. D. 1620), Op. 55, No. 3 (from "Sea Pieces"); Of Br'er Rabbit (from "Fireside Tales", Op. 61).

Of these selections only the "Scotch Poem", "Improvisation" and "Rigaudon" are completely new to records, although many of the other selections are no longer available. Mr. Ganz is a very good choice for these selections and has been recorded with accuracy. It is to be hoped that Decca will continue to issue more "serious" music in the not too distant future.

MARTINU (BOHUSLAV)

MARTINU: Quartet No. 2. String Quartet of the National Theatre, Prague. Three 12" imported records (6 sides), No. U-G14330/2; price $5.25. (Available in manual sequence only).

Boshuslav Martinu's String Quartet No. 2, written in 1926, had its first performance the following year in Berlin by the Frank-Novak Quartet, for whom it was written. Somewhat feverish in feeling and overall content, it is a dynamic work, written with an excellent understanding of quartet technique. The first movement is obviously influenced by Stravinsky.

The Quartet of the National Theatre, Prague, is excellent and has been recorded with fidelity and spirit. These pressings, imported from Czechoslovakia, are of very fine quality. However, quantities are limited at the present time.

MOZART (WOLFGANG AMADEUS)

MOZART: Cassation No. 2 in B flat major, K. 99. L'Oiseau Lyre Orchestra conducted by Fernand Oubradous. Two 12" imported records (2 sides), Nos. OL-124/5; price $4.40.

The Cassation No. 2 in B flat major, K. 99, composed in Salzburg in the summer of 1769, is scored for strings, oboes and horns. The movements are marked: Marche; Allegro molto; Andante, Menuetto I; Andante; Menuetto II (omitted in this recording); Allegro molto — Marche.

The recording by the L'Oiseau Lyre Orchestra is notable for its verve and spirit as well as the excellent balance. This is a first recording.

MOZART: Concerto No. 3 in E flat major, K. 447, for Horn & Orchestra. L. Thetvet (horn) & Symphony Orchestra conducted by Fernand Oubradous. Two 10" imported records (4 sides), Nos. G-DA4929/30; price $4.00.

There is another recording of this remarkable concerto played by Aubrey Brain and the BBC Symphony Orchestra but it has been out of stock for some time. At the present time we have a limited supply of a very fine French recording featuring L. Thetvet as soloist. There have recently been recordings of the Horn Concertos No. 2 & No. 4 so the present recording and performance is most welcome.

It might be noted that the work is mislabelled K. 417, although it is actually K. 447.

MOZART: Quartet No. 19 in C major, K. 465 ("Dissonant"). Loewenguth String Quartet. Three 12" imported records (6 sides), Nos. G-DB 11120/2; price $7.86. (Available in manual sequence only)

The "Dissonant" Quartet was composed in January, 1785 and performed for the first time the following month at the same time as the Quartets, K. 458 and K. 464. All were dedicated to Haydn. The present quartet is No. 6 of the Haydn series.

The Loewenguth String Quartet, one of the major European chamber music ensembles, is scheduled to play in New York this season. If this recording is representative, their concerts should be eagerly anticipated. The French recording is very good. Quantities are limited at the present time.

MOZART: Operatic Arias. Eleanor Steber (soprano in Italian & English) & Victor Orchestra conducted by Jean Paul Morel. Two 12" records in Set VM-1157; price complete with album $4.20. Automatic sequence: VDM-1157; $3.15)

Contents: Le Nozze di Figaro — No. 6, Non so piu cosa son & No. 27, Deh vieni, non tardar; Die Entführung aus dem Serail — No. 11, Martern aller Arten (Tortures unabating).

Miss Steber's development as an artist is displayed by the present set of records. The selections from the "Marriage of Figaro" are well sung and show a fine sense of style (although she should have avoided the high note at the end of "Non so piu cosa son" since it is not in the score). The aria (in English) from "The Abduction from the Seraglio" is complete in the present performance. Although Miss Steber has some trouble with the numerous high passages, it is a welcome release, because the aria has not been available in complete form for many years (the Korjus version is badly cut: G-EH898).

The recording is very well accomplished, with a good balance between the soloist and the accompanying orchestra.

MOZART: Quintet in D major, K. 593. Budapest String Quartet with Milton Katims (viola). Three 12" records (6 sides) in Set CMM-708; price complete with album $4.60.

Composed in December, 1790, for the Hungarian merchant, Johan Tost, the Quintet in D major, K. 593 belongs to the final period of Mozart's life. With this quintet, the Budapest Quartet and Milton Katims approach the goal of recording all the Mozart String Quintets. Only the great E flat major Quintet, K. 614 remains unrecorded. Although these artists lack the polish and subtlety of the Pro Arte Quartet and the violist, A. Hobday (in VM-350, out of stock), they play with their usual style and have received superb support from the recording engineers.

PROKOFIEV (SERGEI)

PROKOFIEV: Symphony No. 1 in D major, Op. 25 ("Classical"). Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy. Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set CMX-287; price complete with album $3.35.

A rather slow-paced but beautifully recorded performance of Prokofiev's "Classical" Symphony by the Philadelphia Orchestra has been released. The reading lacks wit and sparkle which has been given in other recorded performances. However, the orchestral sound is most attractive.

RESPIGHI (OTTORINO)

RESPIGHI: Le Fontane di Roma (The Fountains of Rome). Symphony Orchestra of the Augusteo, Rome, conducted by Victor De Sabata. Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. G-DB 6448/9; price $5.24.

The individual sections of this suite are entitled: La Fontana di Vale Giulia all'alba (The Fountain of the Valle Giulia at Dawn); La Fontana di Tritone al mattino (The Triton Fountain at Morn); La Fontana di Trevi nel meriggio (The Trevi Fountain at Midday); La Fontana di Villa Medici al tramonto (The Villa Medici Fountain at Sunset).

This is the first of a set of three symphonic poems of the aspects of Rome, its landscapes, its countryside and its history. The companion pieces are "I Pini di Roma" and "Feste Romane". The first performance took place in Rome on February 10, 1918 under Toscanini's direction. There are musical pictures of four of Rome's many beautiful fountains and the sentiments and visions suggested by each of them.

The recording is stunning in its impact. The conductor is just about perfect for this vivid music. The orchestra is also most effective.

STRAVINSKI (IGOR)

STRAVINSKY: Concerto in E flat major for Chamber Orchestra ("Dumbarton Oaks Concerto"). Dumbarton Oaks Chamber Orchestra conducted by Igor Stravinsky. Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set K-DMI; price complete with album $4.20. (Available in automatic sequence only)

Dumbarton Oaks is the name of the Washington estate of Hon. Robert Woods Bliss, former U. S. Ambassador to the Argentine. The present concerto was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Bliss on the occasion of their thirtieth wedding anniversary. On that date (May 8, 1938) it received its first performance under the direction of Nadia Boulanger.

The present set has excellent notes by Ingolf Dahl as well as the personnel of the orchestra and the recording engineers.

The recording is brilliant and resonant under the direction of the composer and the vinylite pressings are quite good. An imported recording (U-F18092/3; price $3.50) by the Hamburg State Philharmonic Chamber Orchestra is out of stock as we go to press.

TARP (SVEND ERIK)

TARP: Concerto in C major, Op. 39, for Piano & Orchestra. Egil Harder (piano) & Copenhagen Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Svend Christian Felumb. Two 12" imported records (4 sides), Nos. G-Z286/7; price $4.00.

The most distinguished exponent of the French influence in modern Danish music is Svend Erik Tarp, born in 1908. In his symphonies, his concertos and particularly in his chamber music, his music shows an elegantly formed style.

The Piano Concerto in C major, Op. 39 was composed in 1943. It is in three movements marked: Molto vivace; Lento; Allegro con brio. The performance by Egil Harder and the Copenhagen Philharmonic Orchestra may be considered authentic. We have received a limited supply of these unusual imported records.

TCHAIKOVSKY (PETER ILYCH)

TCHAIKOVSKY: Concerto No. 1 in B flat minor, Op. 23 for Piano & Orchestra. Artur Rubinstein (piano) & Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra conducted by Dimitri Mitropoulos. Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set VM-1159; price complete with album $6.30. (Automatic sequence: VDM-1159; $5.25)

Victor has re-recorded Arthur Rubinstein in the Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1. The older recording (VM-180) has been the standard version for several years and now with the benefit of the new recording and a superb brilliant conductor, we have a most stunning performance. The recording is most praiseworthy and the orchestra, lifelike. This is the first really decent recording to come from this orchestra in several years. Now that we can finally hear what it sounds like under Mr. Mitropoulos, we can have nothing but praise for this fine organization. Mr. Rubinstein has not changed his noble concept of the work in the years between the recordings so there can be nothing but praise for the soloist.

WAGNER (RICHARD)

WAGNER: Tristan und Isolde. — Love Duet, Act II. Helen Traubel (soprano), Hertha Glaz (contralto), Torsten Ralf (tenor) & Metropolitan Opera Orchestra conducted by Fritz Busch. (Sung in German). Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set CMX-286; price complete with album $3.35.

Despite all the faults of the Flagstad-Melchior recording of this duet, it still remains superior in almost every way to the present recording. True, by having a third singer the scene may be given without the cut used in the earlier recording. However, Miss Glaz' voice is not particularly appealing so she could easily have been left out. As far as that goes, Mr. Ralf is out of place in this music. Only Mme. Traubel is at ease. It is a shame that none of the magnificent music preceding "O sink hernieder" was included in the set. The best version of this music is still the badly cut but superbly sung Leider-Melchior version (V-7273/4; price $2.10).

The recording, made in the Metropolitan Opera House leaves much to be desired. After the recent and excellent "Hansel and Gretel" we were led to expect more from the present recording.

COLLECTIONS

REPEAT PERFORMANCE. Lily Pons (soprano in French, Spanish & English) & Orchestra conducted by André Kostelanetz. Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set CMM-720; price complete with album $5.85.

Contents: STRAUSS: Le Beau Danube; Voce di Prima (in French); MOORE: The Last Rose of Summer; SAINT-SAENS: Le Bonheur est une chose legere; FREIRE: Ay-Ay-Ay (in Spanish); PONCE: Estrellita (in Spanish); DELIBES: Les Filles de Cadiz.

More Lily Pons favorites acceptably recorded.

OPERATIC DUETS OF PUCCINI & VERDI. Jan Peerce & Leonard Warren (tenor & baritone in Italian) & Victor Orchestra conducted by Jean Paul Morel & Erich Leinsdorf. Two 12" records (4 sides) in Set VM-1156; price complete with album $4.20. (Automatic sequence: VDM-1156; $3.15)

Contents: VERDI: La Forza del Destino — Solenne in quest'ora (dir. Leinsdorf) & Invano Alvaro (dir. Morel); PUCCINI: La Bohème — In un coupé (O Mimi tu più non torni) (dir. Morel).

There has been no recording available of the duet from the last act of "La Forza del Destino" for some time. This dramatic duet was once recorded to perfection by Caruso and Amato but that magnificent performance is no longer obtainable. While the present artists are obviously not in the same class with the older artists, they give a very creditable account of the score. It might be said that the music is complete without cuts. The duet from the earlier section of the same opera is likewise praiseworthy.

The recordings are quite good and the balance between voices and orchestra is likewise excellent.

VIOLIN ENCORES. Jascha Heifetz (violin) & Emanuel Bay (piano). Four 10" records (8 sides) in Set VM-1158; price complete with album $4.20.

Contents: DEBUSSY: Ariettes oubliées No. 2 — Il pleure dans mon coeur (arr. Hartman); POL-DOWSKI: Tango; BACH: English Suite No. 6 in D minor — Gavottes I & II (arr. Heifetz); BEE-THOVEN: Folk Dance (arr. Heifetz); FALLA: El Amor Brujo — Pantomime (arr. Kochanski); NIN: Cantilena Asturiana; MILHAUD: Saudades do Brasil No. 7 — Corcovado (arr. Claude Levy); ARENSKY: Concerto in A minor for Violin & Orchestra — Tempo di Valse (arr. Heifetz); MENDELSSOHN: Trio No. 1 in D minor — Scherzo (arr. Heifetz).

Several encore selections performed to perfection by Jascha Heifetz. The recording is excellent.

SONGS OF FAITH (A CHORAL CONCERT). De Paur's Infantry Chorus conducted by Leonard De Paur. Three 12" records in Set CMM-709; price complete with album $4.60.

Contents: TRADITIONAL: Eli Eli (in Hebrew & English); NEGRO SPIRITUAL: Deep River; MALOTTE: The Lord's Prayer; LVOVSKY: Hospodi Polmilui (in Russian); PALESTRINA: O bone Jesu & Adoremus te Christe (in Latin); IPPOLITOV-IVANOV: Bless the Lord O My Soul (in English); DA SILVA: The Blessing of St. Francis; CRESTON: Here is My Footstool, Op. 11 (from "Three Chorales" from Tagore).

A mixed collection of old and new material satisfactorily recorded.

MORTON GOULD SHOWCASE. Morton Gould and his Orchestra. Four 12" records (8 sides) in Set CMM-706; price complete with album $5.85.

Contents: Masquerade; The Peanut Vendor; Begin the Beguine; Georgia On My Mind; Blues in the Night; The Birth of the Blues; Two Guitars.

Typical Morton Gould arrangements have been effectively recorded.

CATHOLIC HYMNS. St. Mary's Seminary Choir, Baltimore, with organ. Four 10" records (8 sides) in Set GREG-1H; price complete with album $5.00.

Contents: Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All; Soul of My Saviour; Ave Maria, O. Maiden, My Mother; Holy Queen Enthroned Above; Jesu, By That Shuddering Dread; O God of Loveliness; O Sacred Head; Alleluia, Alleluia, Let the Anthem Rise.
